

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear violation of the freedom of the airways and the fact that our airways are not the property of any broadcasting conglomerate to use to better their own interests at the expense of the public. This is not the same as the film by Michael Moore as that was totally a matter of choice on the viewers part. Prempting prime time programs and pumping this biased propaganda into our homes is truley UN-AMERICAN and I feel sure the value of Sinclair Broadcasting stock in the open market will feel the negative effect of their action, as it should. Sinclair Broadcastiong uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
